1. BASIS

Based on Art. 25 of the Articles of Association of Kuros Biosciences AG and Art. 716b of the Swiss Code of Obligations, the board of directors has issued these Internal Regulations ("Internal Regulations"). The Internal Regulations govern the internal organization as well as the duties, powers and responsibilities of the following executive bodies and persons of Kuros Biosciences AG ("Company"):

- the board of directors (the "Board");
- the chairperson of the Board (the "Chairperson");
- the vice chairperson of the Board (the "Vice Chairperson"), if any;
- the committees of the Board (each a "committee")
- the chief executive officer (the "CEO");
- the executive committee and its members (the "Executive Committee");
- the Compensation & Nomination Committee (the "CNC")
- the Audit Committee of the Board (the "AC")
- the Research & Development Committee (the "RDC")

2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

2.1 Duty of Care and Loyalty

The members of the Board and the Executive Committee must perform their duties with all due diligence, and safeguard and further the interests of the Company and its shareholders.

2.2 Duty of Confidentiality

Each member of the Board or the Executive Committee must, at all times, keep strictly confidential all information relating to the Company of which the member has learned during the exercise of his/her duties, except information which is already in the public domain. This obligation continues after the expiration of the term of office or the resignation of the member. Business documents of the Company must be returned to the members at the latest on expiry of their term of office or their resignation.

2.3 Related Transactions

No member of the Board or the Executive Committee shall participate in the deliberations and resolutions on matters which affect, or reasonably might affect the interests of that member or of a person close to that member as further defined in the related party transaction regulation. All transactions and agreements between the Company, a Board member or the Executive Committee (or affiliated or related persons thereof) shall follow the related party transaction regulation of the Board and shall be approved by the Board.

2.4 Conduct and Conflict of Interest

Each member of the Board and the Executive Committee must conduct itself in full compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and may not commit illegal or unethical acts.

Each member of the Board and the Executive Committee should arrange his/her personal and business affairs so as to avoid, as far as possible, conflicts of interest with the Company.

Each member of the Board or the Executive Committee must inform the Chairperson (or in case of the Chairperson being conflicted, the Vice Chairperson) without delay if a conflict of interest arises. The Chairperson, or Vice Chairperson, may request a decision by the Board regarding the seriousness of the conflict of interest. The Board decides without participation of the person concerned, whether to exclude such a member from the deliberation and/or decision to be taken.

For particular policies regarding conduct and conflicts of interest the Board shall enact a code of business conduct and ethics.

2.5 Quorum

Meetings may be held in any location determined by the chairperson of the respective body. Meetings may also be held and resolutions adopted by telephone or videoconference communication with access offered to all members of the respective body.

Unless stated otherwise in these Internal Regulations, the quorum for any meeting shall be half of the duly elected members

No quorum is required, and the presence of one member is sufficient, when approving reports on capital increases and resolutions regarding the carrying out of capital increases and the corresponding change of the Articles of Association.

A Board member who is not able to participate in a meeting of the Board or a Board committee may neither be represented by another member of the Board nor by any other person.

2.6 Resolutions

Resolutions shall be taken by the majority of the votes passed (abstentions not counted). In case of a tie, the Chairperson (or if not absent or not voting, the person chairing the meeting) shall have the casting vote.

Resolutions may also be taken in writing (including mail, e-mail or telefax), unless one member of the Board requests an oral debate. The passing of such written resolution (also called circular resolution) requires as well majority of the votes passed (abstentions not counted), unless one members requests a resolution by a meeting / conference call.

2.7 Secretary and Minutes

The Board shall appoint a corporate secretary (the "Secretary"), who does not need to be a member of an executive body of the Company or a Shareholder.

The Secretary reports directly to the Chairperson

The Secretary or a designated taker of the minutes shall keep the minutes of meetings, which shall contain all resolutions adopted at the meeting. The minutes shall be signed by the Chairperson and keeper of the minutes and shall be approved at the next physical meeting of the respective body.

2.8 No Representation of Members

A Board member who is not able to participate in a meeting of the Board or a Board committee may neither be represented by another member of the Board nor by any other person.

2.9 Participation of Non-Members

Persons who are not members of the Board, the committees of the Board or the Executive Committee may participate in meetings of such bodies if their expertise is required and if they have been invited by the chairperson of the body. Such persons shall not vote in any resolutions.

3. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson

The Chairperson is elected by the general meeting of the shareholders (the "General Meeting") by the General Meeting for a term of office until completion of the next ordinary General Meeting. If the office of the Chairperson is vacant, the Board shall appoint a new Chairperson from among its members for the remaining term of office.

The Board may appoint from its members the Vice Chairperson.

3.2 Board Committees

The Board has established three standing committees as further described below in section 8 to 10. The members of the AC and RDC are elected by the Board for a term of one business year until the end of the next ordinary General Meeting. The members of the CNC are elected by General Meeting for a term of one business year until the end of the next ordinary General Meeting, provided that the particular member does not resign or is not replaced during the term. The Board may establish other permanent or non-permanent committees from time to time as the Board deems necessary or appropriate to assist the Board in discharging its duties. Unless not specified in these Internal Regulations, the duties of such committees will be established in a charter or specified in the Board resolution creating such committee.

Unless specifically stated otherwise in a Board-approved regulation or decision, all committees shall not pass any resolutions but rather prepare and recommend resolutions to be passed by the full Board.

3.3 Meetings

The meetings shall be called by the person designated by the Chairperson and shall be chaired by the Chairperson and in the event he/she is prevented from doing so, by the Vice Chairperson and in the event he/she is prevented from doing so, by any other member of the Board as often as required by the ordinary course of the business. In case of urgency, any member of the Board may request an immediate meeting. This request must be made as far in advance as possible. A statement of the reasons is necessary.

The yearly meeting calendar indicating the meeting dates shall be fixed prior to the start of the calendar year. The final meeting dates shall be notified at least one month in advance.

The Chairperson prepares the Board meetings, including the development of the agenda and the preparation and distribution of the meeting materials to be provided to the Board members in advance of the meetings.

The meetings shall be formally called in writing or by e-mail at least one week prior to the meeting including the agenda and all material necessary for a proper preparation of the meeting. In urgent matters, these formal requirements do not need to be met. In such a situation, the Board may pass a resolution if a majority of its members confirms the urgent character of the matter.

If all members of the Board who are present agree to do so, they may also pass resolutions on matters which were not properly notified. Resolutions may be passed via telephone or videoconference. Resolutions may also be passed by way of circulation, provided that no member requests oral deliberation

Minutes are kept of the board's discussions and resolutions and signed by the Chairperson and the minute-taker.

If the CEO is simultaneously member of the Board, the Board holds on an as needed basis discussions in board meetings without the presence of the CEO. The matters to be addressed during such meetings shall be matters such as the collaboration of the members of the Board with the CEO and the Executive Committee.

3.4 Function and Powers of the Board

The Board has the power to make decisions on all matters which are not vested in General Meeting or delegated to any other corporate body or person by Swiss law, the respective Articles of Association or these Internal Regulations.

The Board delegates management entirely to the CEO unless Swiss law, the respective Articles of Association or these Internal Regulations provide otherwise.

The Board supervises, monitors and controls the management. The Board enacts guidelines for business policy and is regularly informed about the course of business.

The Board is entitled to pass resolutions concerning all matters which are not reserved or entrusted to the General Meeting or another organ of the corporation by law, the respective Articles of Association or these Internal Regulations.

Once per year the Board of Directors shall assess its proper performance as well as the performance of the CEO.

10. RESTRICTIONS ON TRADING IN COMPANY SHARES

10.1 Definitions

A "transaction" means any direct or indirect purchase of:

- a) Company shares;
- b) conversion and share acquisition rights which grant the holder a right to convert into or to acquire Company shares, irrespective of whether such rights provide for actual delivery or cash settlement;

- c) all types of financial instruments which do not fall under the above-named rights, but whose prices are substantially influenced by Company shares.

Facts are considered to be "price-sensitive" if they might result in a significant change in the price of Company shares. Such facts include the financial results, extraordinary events, proposals or discussions regarding corporate acquisitions and disposals, etc.

10.2 Rules

The following rules apply to all employees and all members of the Board of Directors of Company or its subsidiary companies:

- a) any transaction involving options on Company shares that do not have shares as their underlying instrument are not permitted. However, employee options may be exercised at any time;
- b) transactions involving an interval of fewer than four weeks are not permitted;
- c) any transaction where the employee may have price-sensitive information is prohibited;
- d) the disclosure of price-sensitive information is prohibited.

The Board shall enact an insider trading policy which shall be mandatory for all persons mentioned therein.

10.3 Further restrictions on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee

The following rules apply to the members of the Board, the Executive Committee and those persons reporting directly to a member of the Executive Committee and those persons exposed to price-sensitive facts.

Transactions are prohibited during the following blocking periods: between 31 December and the subsequent announcement of the annual results and between 30 June and the announcement of the half-yearly results. The CFO may grant exceptions in justifiable instances.

During blocking periods, no recommendations may be issued with respect to Company shares.

If transactions are concluded by members of the Board or the Executive Committee, they must inform the Secretary of such transactions within two trading days.

11. CODE OF ETHICS

The Board shall enact a Code of Ethics which shall be mandatory for all persons mentioned therein.

12. FINAL PROVISIONS

These Internal Regulations were adopted by the Board at the date written below and enter into force immediately. In individual cases, the Board of Directors may at any time adopt resolutions which deviate from these Regulations. In the event of general changes, it should amend these Regulations.
